The place to do business

Consisting of two buildings, Horton House and Walker House, Exchange Flags is the focal point of Liverpool's central business district and is widely recognised as Liverpool's most prestigious office address.

Walker House is the final phase of the transformation of Exchange Flags and offers in excess of 200,000 sq ft of high quality refurbished office space combining the elegance of the building with contemporary designed common areas and office space.

The landmark 11 storey building boasts some of the most dramatic views of the City and beyond, taking in Liverpool's Pier Head, The Albert Dock and out towards the Welsh mountains.

Whether your company is large or small, Walker House is the place to do business

The perfect location

Situated in the heart of Liverpool's thriving commercial quarter, Walker House has vast array of amenities and transport links within easy walking distance.

Its enviable location also benefits from excellent transport links, with Merseyrail's Moorfields and James Street stations just a short walk from Walker House offering links throughout Merseyside and the national rail network via Liverpool Lime Street.

Exchange Flags itself will offer the highest quality mix of ground floor retail and leisure operators to compliment the office accommodation above. However, it is the added benefit of being located close to the City's flourishing Retail District, with the vast array of shops, bars and restaurants that makes Walker House the perfect location.

A modern renaissance

Exchange Flags offers high specification Grade A refurbished office suites that have been designed to incorporate functionality and comfort within stylish, contemporary surroundings.

The historical grandeur of the building is complimented by the development's modern take on function and design, incorporating the latest technology and quality materials that brings this magnificent building into the 21st Century.
